(*) There are two possibilities to get a visa to Vietnam:

- 1) To get visa at a Vietnamese consulate of your choice (in your country or in a third country where your stay status allows getting a visa) or
- 2) To get on-arrival visa upon your arrival at an international airport in Vietnam.

In both cases, we have to apply for your visa here in Hanoi, based on your filled in visa form. When it is ready, we will send the visa approval number to you for further processing.

In case 1): You should submit your visa application in the Vietnamese consulate of your choice. Presenting your visa approval number you can get your visa.

In case 2): you need not to do anything else. You can pick up your visa upon your arrival at the airport (with payment of about 25 USD per visa). You may get an “on-arrival visa” without an application in advance (but it is more safe to apply for it in advance).
